

School Children, Adults Anonymous Donors Give To Save Battlefield Shrine

School children, and adults, are showing a great interest in preserving the Gettysburg Battlefield.

Contributions have come from most of the states but those most pleasing to Dr. Robert L. Bloom, secretary-treasurer of the Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association, with offices in the Weaver building, are those donated by school children.

A check for $150 was received from Mildred U. Beck, head of the Social Studies Department of Cheyenne, Wyo., Senior High School. Miss Beck wrote that every class donated in a drive she conducted at the school. She added, "We do hope you are more than successful in this drive. If it would help any, since we are among the first to get started, you may use us as an example. Also I am sure some of the students would like to write to others and encourage them to get in on the drive."

Catton Donates $100

The East Franklin Local School District of Akron, Ohio, donated $79.79 representing student contributions. Madison Township High School, Dayton, Ohio, gave $30.

Civil War Round Tables have joined the campaign, Dr. Bloom reported. The Park Forest, Ill., Round Table sent in $25; the Jackson, Mich., Civil War Round Table, $47; and in the words of its secretary, Mrs. Raymond Schultz, "We have hopes of being able to triple our original pledge."

Frank A. Palumbo forwarded $61 from members of the Chicago Civil War Round Table members.

Among prominent historians who have donated is Bruce Catton, famed author and editor of the American Heritage, who sent $100.

Dr. Bloom said the $25,578.04 in contributions, so far as can be estimated, represents about $6,000 from an article appearing in Parade Magazine, about $4,500 from the Person-to-Person TV show by Cliff Arquette last week, and the remainder from "plugs" on the Jack Paar show by Cliff Arquette (Charley Weaver), news-

HILGER SEEKS WORKERS FOR REC PROGRAM

Chester J. Hilger, director of recreation, today issued an appeal for recreational workers to assist in the summer program. Interested persons are asked to obtain applications from the recreational office in the high school.

The appeal, made at the recreation board's monthly meeting in the high school Monday evening, also contained information for those persons who had served the board in the past. Hilger said it would not be necessary for former assistants to submit new applications. He requested that they notify him of their availability.

A variety of subjects were discussed Monday, all of them with an eye toward the coming summer season. Members voted to grant permission to the high school teams to practice and play baseball on the big little league field. There was a discussion of a location for a proposed lot, the repair of a tractor and the use of adequate fertilizer.

Ban Field Use Now

The board requests that the public refrain from using the various athletic fields during the spring months before playing surfaces are in satisfactory condition. While on the subject of athletic fields, the board examined several proposals for power mowers but no final action was taken on the matter pending investigation.

The board voted to purchase two new outdoor basketball backstops at a cost of $200.

Hilger introduced a simplified budget form which he has developed. No decision was reached.

Fire-Weakened Walls Torn Down

As a safety precaution, workmen of McDermitt Brothers Monday afternoon knocked down a portion of the upper walls at the former site of the Hoagie House and the Ziegler Studio on Chambersburg St. The two buildings were gutted by the fire that destroyed the Adams House Saturday, January 30.

Bricks and pieces of lumber have been falling onto the sidewalk below the roofless building lately causing a hazard. Workmen expressed the belief that thawing conditions are responsible for the additional deterioration. With the use of a crane and manual labor, loose bricks and timber were pushed into the building.

19 Firemen Killed When Whisky Warehouse Burns

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — Britain's worst fire brigade disaster—the explosion of a blazing whisky warehouse—killed 19 firemen and injured at least 40 other firefighters Monday night.

The explosion dumped tons of rubble and burning scotch whisky on three fire trucks and rocked surrounding tenements.

Two little girls who had run from their nearby homes to see the fire were at first feared buried in the blazing ruins. But they spent the night in a nearby warehouse and turned up this morning.

Intense heat from the smoldering ruins prevented rescue teams from making a thorough search early today.

Officials said that not even a fire truck.

President And Macmillan Are Pleased With Tests' Accord

President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, of Great Britain, are satisfied with the accord and progress they have made in their discussions of the proposed nuclear test ban, the Allies counter-proposal to the recent proposal of the Soviet Union, James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, told his news conference in the Hotel Gettysburg pressroom at noon today.

The two world leaders are conferring on these momentous issues at Camp David, the President's Catocin Mountain retreat near Thurmont, Md. They started Monday noon, continued today, and will continue with private talks this evening and tomorrow morning when they return to Washington about 8:30 a.m.

Release Statement Today

The two sides, United States and England, have blocked out a great section of an agreement on nuclear tests, Hagerty said, and the conferees are pleased with their progress thus far. Hagerty did not say what the nature of the agreed considerations are.

A statement on the Camp David talks was to be released between 3:30 and 4 o'clock this afternoon, Hagerty said.

Vice President Nixon and other American and British advisers arrived at Camp David at 10:15 o'clock. Mr. Nixon and Secretary of State Christian Herter met at the White House early this morning and in a conference there and en route to Thurmont in a 'copter, Herter gave the vice president a fill-in on the technical angles of the conferences between state department officials and members of Mr. Macmillan's office.

At the camp the vice president and Herter conferred with Mr. Eisenhower and Macmillan for about an hour, the latter two giving the others a fill-in on the nature and progress of their Monday's discussions. After this conference the President and prime minister were informed of the progress of the technical talks in Washington.

Remain At Camp Overnight

Hagerty said Nixon, Herter and the other American and British advisers and aides will return to Washington this afternoon. President Eisenhower and Macmillan will remain at Camp David overnight. Their private secretaries will also remain overnight and return to Washington Wednesday morning. Hagerty also will remain at Camp David.

SEES HIS HOME CROSS STREET IN BIGLERVILLE

It isn't every day a man can watch his house go by.

But that's what happened to Oscar C. Rice Sr. Monday. And today, he can watch his house working slowly down through the field behind his business establishment.

The Biglerville farm equipment dealer brought about the situation—although he didn't expect current results at the time—by selling his home on N. Main St. in Biglerville to the Upper Adams Joint School System.

Need Land For School

The school system wanted Rice's land, where his house stood, for the construction of the proposed new high school there.

When the house was offered for sale on a "take it down and away basis" Glenn Crouse of Littlestown bought it, and decided to move the building," since it is such a nice home" to another site in Biglerville.

Last week his workmen put 15 tons of steel girders under the house, then they worked three sets of wheels under the structure forming a tricycle-like base for it.

Monday they knocked away the foundation and 100 tons of brick house started to move slowly toward its new "home." The 30-foot high, 30 by 40-foot structure pulled by trucks and tractors moved across Main St. to land of O. C. Rice, at the O. C. Rice and Son establishment. All of Rice's display equipment had been moved. Traffic was tied up only about 20 minutes Monday morning until the house had crossed to the Rice and Son establishment. Then after a checkup, the house started across fields to near the Biglerville Cemetery where it swung south and will proceed along Franklin St. to its ultimate location on W. York St.

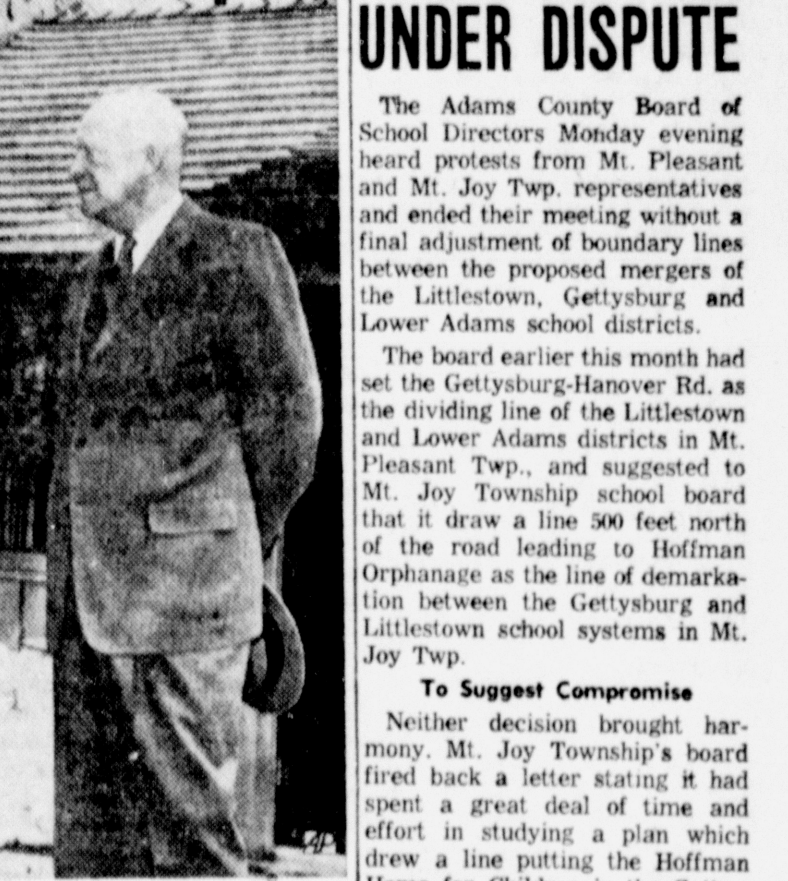

The house was turned around before it was moved from its foundation site so that it will be faced the right way when it comes to rest in its new location.

Castro Flaunts Rio Pact To Unite Against Commies

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro served notice Monday night his government does not feel bound by the 13-year-old Rio pact calling for concerted action by the American republics against communism.

In another of his marathon television broadcasts, Castro implied remarks by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter in a radio-TV interview March 20 were a threat to label the Cuban government Communist and thus bring into effect the terms of the Rio pact.

"We do not feel ourselves obligated to the Rio treaty," Castro asserted, "because the revolutionary government did not sign it."

Castro thus repudiated previous statements he made here and in the United States last year that his government would abide by all international treaties entered into by previous Cuban governments.

COUNTY BOARD FAILS TO FIX MERGER LINES UNDER DISPUTE

The Adams County Board of School Directors Monday evening heard protests from Mt. Pleasant and Mt. Joy Twp. representatives and ended their meeting without a final adjustment of boundary lines between the proposed mergers of the Littlestown, Gettysburg and Lower Adams school districts.

The board earlier this month had set the Gettysburg-Hanover Rd. as the dividing line of the Littlestown and Lower Adams districts in Mt. Pleasant Twp., and suggested to Mt. Joy Township school board that it draw a line 500 feet north of the road leading to Hoffman Orphanage as the line of demarcation between the Gettysburg and Littlestown school systems in Mt. Joy Twp.

To Suggest Compromise

Neither decision brought harmony. Mt. Joy Township's board fired back a letter stating it had spent a great deal of time and effort in studying a plan which drew a line putting the Hoffman Home for Children in the Gettysburg district and it saw no reason to change its opinion, which it believed was based on the needs of the children and the most economical bus routes.

As a result, the county board decided to invite Mt. Joy Twp. board to a meeting April 6 at which the county board will propose changes in the proposed line which would put Hoffman School in Gettysburg and put some other properties along the road leading to the school in the Littlestown system. The "compromise," the county board hopes, will solve the problem.

Mt. Joy's board suggested in its letter to the county board that, if the line is not drawn as Mt. Joy set it, the township board may find it very difficult to support the proposal for merger of the school systems.

Three representatives of the Hoffman Home were present to explain why they desire the children to continue in the Gettysburg Schools.

Hear Hoffman Chairman

Clark S. Smith, chairman of the board of the Hoffman Home for Children; Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox, pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ here, and Ross Myers, Hanover, representing Hoffman School, told the board it is "very necessary" to continue the approximately 25 children in the Gettysburg schools. Smith said, "We no longer have many orphans. We have neglected children from broken homes. We are trying to give them something with which they can identify themselves. We feel that we must make them feel they are not rejected, that they are part of the community. For that reason we have ceased holding church services at the home and bring them to Trinity Church here in Gettysburg. They go to school in Gettysburg. We make it possible for them to develop friends and take part in all activities so they can identify themselves with Gettysburg. It has worked out very well. They meet their school friends in church now, they sing on the choir, they go to the games at school, they serve as ushers in the church, they take part in school and town activities. You really need to have known them before when they were sort of stuck away by themselves and know them now that they have become a part of the community, to appreciate the difference."

"We would hate to see all that destroyed by a switch in schools. We fear the effect would be quite harmful. We hope you can continue to allow them to come to Gettysburg where they are putting down roots. Believe us, we know that Littlestown Schoo System is excellent and Littlestown is as fine a community as can be found—but we fear the results of this uprooting."

Want To Come Here

Six residents of the western portion of Mt. Pleasant Twp. appeared to ask that their children be permitted to attend the Gettysburg schools. They were Richard J. Mills, Francis S. Dayhoff, Rodney C. Ernest, Daniel W. Hoffman, Kenneth J. Dayhoff and Attorney John B. Keith.

All argued that the children in the western part of Mt. Pleasant, "along a line of few hundred yards east of the Low Dutch Road," should be sent to Gettysburg schools. They now attended at Littlestown or New Oxford.

"Not Closing The Door"

The Mt. Pleasant group said: "It seems unfair to send our children ten miles to a school in a town in which they are unacquainted when the school in the town with which they are associated is only a few miles away. If they were to go to Gettysburg they could take part in all the school activities. Most of us work in Gettysburg, buy there and get into town frequently. If our children

The two men returned to Camp David late in the afternoon, rested briefly, conferred again and after dinner retired early for today's session.

Raps Conformity In Chapel Address

A university chaplain condemned the conformity of modern students this morning in an address in the Gettysburg College chapel.

The Rev. Arthur R. Seyda, campus pastor at Pennsylvania State University, compared student conformity as described in "The Status Seekers," recent best seller, with the conformity of Joseph of Arimathea, in the New Testament. "Joseph refused to take a stand in the court which sentenced Jesus to the cross," he said.

"The fence-sitting Joseph was like the fence-sitting contemporary student. A 'secret' disciple, Joseph showed his true colors after it was too late to do anything about it," Rev. Seyda declared. His topic was "If I Had Only One Lenten Sermon to Preach."

STOCKS MIXED

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was mixed in moderate trading early this afternoon.

Key stocks showed minor changes.

It was the third straight session of a virtually trendless market. A few encouraging items appeared in the general news background. A rise in machine tool orders portended industry's plans to step up production. Further easing of credit was reflected by another drop in the rate for U.S. Treasury bills. Construction activity was reported to be swinging upward.

Paul M. and Edna S. Settle, R. 3, have sold their 122-acre dairy farm in Franklin Twp., to R. Kenneth and Alice K. Foust, Howard Ave. Possession is being given this week. The sale was made by Lee M. Hartman, local realtor.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Forest Fires On South Mountain: The South Mountains have been the scene of a number of disastrous forest fires during the past few days and many acres of valuable timberland have been burned over, the dry wood falling rapidly prey to the flames. In every instance it was necessary for large forces of men to get to work and many hours' hard work were required before their efforts proved successful.

Gettysburg Gets Army Maneuvers: Congressman Lefebvre this morning telephoned to C. William Beales that he was informed by Assistant Secretary of War Oliver that Gettysburg had been selected as the site for the maneuvers of the Regular Army and the National Guards to be held from July 5 to September 1.

This means that Gettysburg gets the biggest military attraction in the history of the town, and decidedly the largest camp which will be held in this section of the United States during the coming summer. For six weeks five thousand troops will be in camp here and the town will have a drawing card such as it has not had for a quarter of a century.

Streets Swept Or No Sprinkler: Where is the sprinkler? With dust several inches thick in some parts of town and a thick layer of it on all the streets this general query has arisen from Gettysburg's four thousand. Business men and citizens have been annoyed generally while the early housewife has delayed her spring cleaning until some relief is afforded.

We have been asked to state that the sprinkler will not be brought out until the streets of town are thoroughly swept. It is argued that the water would make only a temporary impression on the thick layer of dust now on the streets and that sprinkling would avail but little to relieve present conditions.

To Rebuild Bream's Dam: At a meeting of the Gettysburg branch of the Pennsylvania Sportsmen held at the Eagle Hotel on Thursday evening it was decided to rebuild Bream's Dam at once in order to give better fishing in that section during the coming Summer. The dam has been in bad shape for some years and, notwithstanding, the bass fishing has been very good in that

Today's Talk

ONLY AS YOU BELIEVE

The greatness of anything done is always proportionate to the belief that backed its inception. Most of the things we believe we can do—we do!

Back of every fine enterprise, every notable achievement, every courageous act, has been the belief-spirit which lived and grew in the heart of man whose blood never ran cold. Only as you believe, can you be sure that ultimate winning will be yours.

Small belief only gets small things across—but BIG belief may reshape a whole decade, or a world, or an endless number of human lives. Only remember this: the greater your belief becomes, the greater your responsibility, and the larger the number of those who are apt to oppose you.

Belief is able. It is resourceful. It is the essence of patience, the very source of all courage.

Before you can believe in anything, however, you must believe in yourself. And that belief must be as dogged as your will can make it.

Believe—and it doesn't matter whether it rains or shines. Believe—and each step in the progress of the thing you do, grows simpler and plainer. Believe—and you may name your own station in life.

Only as you believe, are you a real factor in the world.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Modulated Voice"

Just Folks

REAL PATRIOTISM

The thing we need is a greater love
For the Stars and Stripes as it waves above,
And a greater pride in our native land.

When you hear her hymn do you ever stand?
We must come to feel when the flag is near
That it stands for all that is sacred here—
For home, and children, and freedom's root.

When it passes by does your hand salute?
Our land must be to us first and best,
And never the butt of an alien jest.
None should lightly her fame attack.

When you hear a slur do you hurt it back?
The thing we need is a greater love
For the glorious land we're boasting of;
Far more respect in the place of brag.

Are you training your boys to love the flag?

section. Every year the stream has been stocked with bass, last year with the big mouthed bass and this summer nine applications have been filed by the local sportsmen for consignments of fish.

Big Flitting: One of the largest "flittings" witnessed in this section for many years took place Thursday, when John Harmsbach moved from a farm near Sell's Station to a farm near East Berlin. Seven four-horse teams were required to haul the household and other goods, while six other vehicles transported neighbors and friends. The cattle, 13 in number, were driven in advance of the household caravan.

Brief Notes: The roller skating on the Court House pavement is growing in popularity. Some of

PRESCRIPTION FOR SHARON IS WORKING OUT

Editor's note: Sharon, seeing signs of blight in its central business district, decided on a project calling for the tearing down of more than 50 buildings, including City Hall. In this article, another in the "Community Bootstrap" series, Editor G. A. Harshman of the Sharon Herald tells what has been done and what is yet to come.

By G. A. HARSHMAN
Editor, The Sharon Herald
SHARON, Pa. (AP)—Two men sit in the office of a downtown Sharon drug store.

Against a background of pill bottles they're working on a prescription—prescription for a city. The patient may not be "sick" but it's not as healthy as they'd like to see it. They know it's going to need muscle for the struggle ahead, the fight to maintain its place as a leading industrial center and to share in the growth and prosperity that economists promise cities that are ready.

The prescription: A new downtown, new industry and protection from floods.

Signs Of Blight
The men: Philip Ellovich, drugist and president of the 200-member Association for a Better City, and L. R. Keough, former department store executive now making a "career" out of his hobby of civic activity.

Sharon's reach for its own bootstraps—now a firm grasp, began when Ellovich began to see that signs of blight appearing in the central business district would, if not corrected, spread to bring ruin to a once-flourishing retail area and adversely affect the entire community. Others joined with him as he spread the gospel of renewal and the result was the organization of the ABC with a 21-member board of directors representing not only merchants but industry, labor, the professions and other phases of business and civic life.

Action Came Quickly
Action came quickly in this order:

The Shenango Valley Regional Planning Commission, which over several years has spearheaded a broad program of area development, recommended the employment of an outside consultant. City Council agreed and paid for a study by Oskar Stenorov, Philadelphia planning expert. Thoroughly versed in planning prece-the youngsters have acquired considerable skill at the pastime. Official announcement of a definite decision regarding National Guard matters is awaited with impatience by Gettysburg people. It is confidently expected that Gettysburg will get the biennial state camp.

Body Of Missing Man Is Found

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—The body of a Harrisburg area man missing nearly three months was recovered Monday from the Susquehanna River at Safe Harbor Dam, 10 miles southwest of Lancaster.

Dr. Donald B. Whitmer, deputy coroner of Lancaster County, said the body was identified through dentures as that of Francis J. Fitzgerald, 39, father of two.

Fitzgerald, of Camp Hill, had been missing since Jan. 4 when he kissed his wife goodbye and told her he was going to jump into the river. His car, the motor running, was found a short time later on the Market St. bridge in Harrisburg.

dures for metropolitan areas, Stenorov took on the Sharon job as a challenge. "To show what could be done in a medium-sized city."

David M. Walker, federal commissioner of the urban renewal program, was quick to catch the vision as he designated Sharon as a pilot city for the nation in the then-new program for the rehabilitation of commercial areas.

As a result, planning is going forward on a project calling for the razing of more than 50 downtown "structures, including the city's antiquated municipal building.

Envisioned in their place are a pedestrian mall, a new river bridge, an improved traffic flow, office buildings, apartments, quality stores and a recreation center.

Some Opposition
The plan is not without opposition. "Too grandiose, too expensive, a waste of taxpayers' money," some say. But proponents point out that redevelopment will increase tax revenues many fold, give the area an attractive, convenient and efficient mercantile area and protect the value of all property. Potential developers are already looking at Sharon with interest and some of the new buildings are assured local and outside financing.

At this point the energetic talents of Keough appear upon the scene. Trading a busy life as head of the area's largest department store, he sought the peace and quiet of retirement at age 60, only to find his vigor was not to be denied. Today he may be found at his desk in the Chamber of Commerce building as full-time executive director of the Sharon Industrial Development Assn.

JACK PAAR'S SHOW CAME FROM LONDON

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Gypsy Jack Paar and his traveling troupe came to us—courtesy of tape, of course—from London Monday night.

The format was that of the New York, and Hugh Downs, Hans Conried and Jose Melis were on hand.

Jack seemed serious, restrained and a bit nervous. Maybe the studio audience was responsible. It was not his own New York partisans and persisted in laughing loudly at unexpected moments—at commercials and slips of the tongue.

Big Night For Hugh
Hugh Downs had a big night. He tried a commercial in a British accent on the Paar Show and he mad: his acting debut in a filmed episode of NBC's "River Boat." I would say that his British accent is as good as his acting.

Next Week's motion picture Oscar awards program will have to go some to be more entertaining than Friday night's awards show on NBC. It consisted primarily of what it promised to be: a gentle but nevertheless adroit spoof of television and its devoted viewers. The awards went to logical candidates.

End Of An Era
Friday night marks the end of a TV era—the last show Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz—now separated—plan to make together. Old "I Love Lucy" shows are still very much around on re-runs and re-runs, however.

But although the old order changeth, television will not be entirely without a Desi Arnaz. Desi IV, 7-year-old son of Lucille and Desi whose birth in 1953 received more headlines than the recent addition to Britain's royal family, will star on Dinah Shore's April 3 show. Little Desi will play—what else?—conga drums while the youngster who played "Little Ricky" in the TV series—his name is Richard Keith—will lead an all-child band and play drums.

Recommended tonight: "The Juggler," NBC, 8:30-9:30—starring Tony Curtis; Garry Moore Show, CBS, 10-11—with Ella Fitzgerald and Mel Tormé; "Kor-a-No Parallel," ABC, 10-11—documentary filmed in that now almost-forgotten country.

Grocer Faces Tax Violation Charge

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Clarence H. Broad, a Wind Gap grocer, faces charges of failing to report $268,426 gross income over a four year period.

In a criminal information filed Monday in U. S. District Court, Internal Revenue Service agents said investigations showed Broad had a gross income of $69,003 in 1954; $71,129 in 1955; $69,526 in 1956 and $78,768 in 1957.

DROPS DEAD ON FLOOR OF HOUSE MONDAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russell Vernon Mack (R-Wash.), 68, a congressman since 1947, collapsed and died in the House of Representatives Monday.

He had been talking on the floor of the House with Rep. Henry Aldous Dixon (R-Utah) and Rep. Thomas M. Pelly (R-Wash.). "It's a nice day, isn't it?" Dixon remarked.

"Not for me," Mack replied.

Eleventh Death

Then Mack fell to the floor, striking his head on a seat. Three House members who are medical doctors rushed to his side and carried him to a cloakroom. They were Reps. Thomas E. Morgan (D-Pa.), Dale Alford (D-Ark) and Walter H. Judd (R-Minn.).

Dr. George W. Calver, physician to Congress, pronounced Mack dead of a coronary occlusion. Mack's death leaves the House party makeup at 280 Democrats, 151 Republicans. There are six vacancies. Mack was the 11th member of Congress to die since the present session began in January 1959.

He is survived by his widow.

Farrell Places Two On All-State Squad; Three SP Dribblers Given HM

By FRED WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two youngsters who started Farrell to its second straight PIAA Class A basketball championship were named today to the 1960 Associated Press all-state scholastic basketball team.

Brian Generalovich and Willie Somerset joined a select group of boys on a starting five loaded with all-around talent. The others are Ron Krick of West Reading, Jim Curry of Altoona and Bill Fry of York.

Received Grid Honor

For Generalovich, his selection on the first team gave him a rare double in post-season honors. He also was first-string tackle on the AP football team.

The team, with height, scoring punch and crafty court sense, is a well-balanced aggregation that could run with the best of high school all-star teams.

It averages a shade under 6-3. The five amassed a total of about 2,900 points during the season, a team average of about 105 points per game.

Krick, 6-8, and Generalovich, 6-4, were ace rebounders; Fry, 6-0, and Somerset, 5-10, were the playmakers for their teams; Curry, 6-4, worked well under the boards and outside.

Lone Junior

In Krick, the only junior on the team, the all-state team has the leading point-producer in state schoolboy history. He ran up a total of 918 points this season and set a new career record of 2,519 points as West Reading won its second straight Class C state title. Somerset was Farrell's scoring star while Curry averaged nearly 21 points a game as Altoona ran up a 22-3 season log, losing to Johnstown in an upset in the District 6 Class A final.

Curry is the lone repeater from last year's first team.

Second Team

Charlie Lodge of Radnor led the second team. Others named were Bill Spears, Shamokin; Ken Legins, Nanticoke; Don Stepe, DuBois, and Dan Monk, Columbia. Brent Kitching, Sharon Hill's 6-6 star, was the leading vote-getter on the third team which included Richie Allen of Wampum's Class B champs, a first team choice last year, and Charlie Hutchinson, Kittanning; Jim Jones, Uniontown; Charlie Unger of Hazleton and Don Hester of Punxsutawney. Hester and Unger tied in the balloting.

Kitching and Legins are juniors; the other second and third team members are seniors.

Honorable Mentions

The list of honorable mentions was headed by Tom McIlwee of Scranton Tech, Walt Hazzard of Philadelphia Overbrook, Ricky Park of Sayre, Marty Toth of Johnstown, Bob Byler of New Castle and Sandy Dalglish of Lawrence Park.

District 3 players who received honorable mention include: Jim Heilman, Hanover; Leon Rideout, Chambersburg; Bob Hancock, Springs Grove; Jim Schlichter, Chambersburg; Jeff Kane, Shippensburg; Ed Shiley, Harrisburg; Jim Krick, Reading; Terry Bosserman, York.

PHIL PITCHERS SHOW PROMISE

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Pitchers John Buzhardt and Chris Short are showing great promise with the Philadelphia Phillies in spring training.

Buzhardt obtained in a trade with the Chicago Cubs, became the first Phillies pitcher to hurl as many as seven innings Monday as he held Cincinnati to five singles, walked only one and he struck out six in a 2-1 Philadelphia victory.

The run Buzhardt gave up in the fourth inning on a walk and two singles was only the second earned run he has allowed in 17 innings this spring. In the span he has yielded 12 hits and four walks while striking out 12.

Short, a 22-year-old rookie from Georgetown, Del., picked up the victory as Bobby Del Greco drove in the winning run with a single in the ninth.

York Wins Lone Loop Golf Match

Only one of the scheduled four golf matches in the Central Penn Scholastic League was played Monday, York defeating William Penn of Harrisburg 10½-4½. Soggy courses forced postponement of the other matches.

Ed Moul's New Oxford golfers, who finished third last year, postponed their contest with John Harris, no date having been set. The Colonials will host Cumberland Valley on the Hanover Country Club links at Abbottstown on Friday.

BALTIMORE'S ROOKIES WILL PLAY BIG ROLE

By JACK HAND

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Baltimore's hopes of a first-division finish lean heavily on a kid pitching staff, two rookie infielders and Jackie Brandt's play in center field.

Brandt could tighten up the outfield. The kid pitchers should be better. If the infield is to improve, either Marv Breeding or Jerry Adair must make it at second and Ron Hansen must do the job at shortstop.

"If the kids develop we feel we can do better," said Manager Paul Richards, who has a talent for handling pitchers.

Defense Is Key

"We do not have quite as acute a problem in the outfield as we had last year. We couldn't seem to muster a tight defense and still retain an offense. We have a better double play possibility. If we can improve our defense, it should make the pitching all the better."

Hoyt Wilhelm (15-11) and Hal (Skinny) Brown (11-9) and balance to the young staff.

Richards could have four starters, whose ages would average 21. Milt Pappas (15-9), is only 20; Jerry Walker (11-10) and Chuck Fisher (1-6) are 21; and Jack Estrada (14-6 at Vancouver) is 22.

Barber For Bullpen

Steve Barber, 21, has been the talk of the camp. The left-hander with a 7-11 record at Pensacola last year, could be the southpaw in the bullpen. The other lefties are Billy Hoelt (2-5) and Rip Coleman (2-10). The rest of the staff will come from Arnold Portocarrero (2-7), Wes Stock (6-6 at Vancouver), Bob Mabe (4-2 at Cincinnati), Gordon Jones (2-2 at San Francisco) and John Anderson (12-9 at Miami).

Although John Powell, a rookie first baseman who was in high school a year ago has been hitting over .500 in the exhibitions, he has had only part of a year in class D at Bluefield, W.Va., where he hit .351. Bob Boyd (.265) and Walt Dropp (.278) probably will share the first base job.

Breeding (.288 at Vancouver) has been a hitting whiz in the spring games at second base. Adair, also a second baseman (.309 at Amarillo) is also fighting for Billy Gardner's (.217) job.

Triandos Will Catch

Hansen, a young man who underwent a serious spinal operation in 1957, may be ready to take over shortly after a 256 year at Vancouver. If not, Billy Klaus (.249) will do. Brooks Robinson (.284) is set at third.

Brandt (.270 at San Francisco), acquired from the Giants, is expected to take over center, a weak spot last year. Gene Woodling (.300) will do the job in left. Right field is up for grabs among Willie Tasby (.250), Al Pilarcik (.282), Albie Pearson (.216) and John Powers (.256 at Cincinnati).

Gus Triandos (.216), handicapped by a hand injury last year, will do most of the catching with help from Joe Ginsberg (.181) and Gene Green (.303 at Rochester).

TAKE RACING CASE TO COURT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Petitions to hold a referendum in Chester County on legalizing pari-mutuel betting on harness races are being challenged again—this time by the Chester County ministerium.

Five ministers, acting for themselves and the ministerium, Monday asked Dauphin County Court to order the State Harness Racing Commission to recall the certified petitions and invalidate them.

The commission approved the Chester County petitions last week after Dauphin County Court ordered the petitioners be given additional time to make corrections. The original petitions failed to include the addresses and occupations of a number of signers.

RON KLINE IS WINNING HIS CAMP GAMES

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Right-hander Ron Kline, traded to St. Louis when he came down with a case of foot-in-the-mouth disease at Pittsburgh, is another of the Cardinals' pitching ragamuffins developing winning ways under the tutelage of coach Howie Pollet.

Kline became the third consecutive member of the Cards' mound staff—worst in the National League last season with a 4-34 earned run average—to go the full nine innings and win when he limited the American League champion Chicago White Sox to six hits Monday in a 3-1 victory.

It was the fifth straight exhibition victory and the ninth in the last 10 games for St. Louis, which previously received route-going performances from Larry Jackson and Vincent Bend Mizell.

No Earned Runs Yet

Kline, who says he became trade bait at Pittsburgh after some caustic comments about the way he was being handled, has not allowed an earned run in 19 innings.

Kansas City's Ray Herbert stretched his scoreless string to 18 innings with seven shut out frames as the A's defeated Detroit 4-1. In other games, Los Angeles thumped New York, 9-3, and the Baltimore Orioles turned back the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, in a 10-inning night game.

Gil Hodges and rookie Charley Smith hit home runs for the Dodgers while Johnny Podres scattered six hits in a strong seven-inning stint against the Yanks. The world champions belted Bob Turley for 10 hits in six stanzas, including Smith's inside-the-park belt with two on.

BASEBALL'S NEW BREED OF PLAYERS CITED

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Carl Erskine says the major leagues are producing a new breed of ball players—sluck, well-groomed business men in Ivy League suits with one ear tuned to the stock market ticker.

"The big league player today has his own agent and legal adviser," the former Dodger pitcher adds. "He owns a bowling alley and a half-interest in some restaurant. When he's through with baseball, he's not a candidate for the relief rolls."

"It's a long haul from the old days when the boys sat around in hotel lobbies picking their teeth and took in no less than two Westerns a day."

In Executive Capacity

Erskine's comments were made at a luncheon Monday at which a national shirt manufacturer announced that Erskine, two other former major leaguers—Jim Hearn and Jerry Coleman—and the New York Giants' defensive end, Andy Robustelli, were joining the firm in an executive sales capacity.

"A ball player today picks the time he want to quit," Erskine said. "He doesn't have to hang on, through sheer economic necessity, and fade out miserably. That's the reason we are having so many guys retiring at an early age."

Erskine himself is a handsome cut of a man who might serve as an advertisement for the shirt he wears. He is articulate with tremendous poise and self-assurance.

Knew When End Came

Erskine, who once struck out 14 New York Yankees for a World Series record, said he knew the minute he was through with baseball.

"I started the second game of a doubleheader for the Dodgers in Pittsburgh," he said. "Before I knew it, balls were flying around my ears like cannon shots. It was lucky nobody got hurt. I walked off the mound after two-thirds of an inning and I knew that was my last game of big league baseball."

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The trial of Frankie Carbo on an extortion charge has been postponed to June 27. Carbo, well known boxing figure, is accused of trying to muscle in on the earnings of welterweight boxing champion Don Jordan. Carbo underwent surgery last Friday in New York. Federal court Monday continued the case to give him time to recover. He was to have gone on trial here today.

Bullets Begin Spring Football Practice; 15 Vets Among 55 Hopefuls

Light spring football drills began Monday as 55 candidates reported to Gene Haas, Gettysburg College head coach, the Bullets taking advantage of the break in the weather to get in the first of their 20 drills in the next 30 days under NCAA rules.

On hand for the initial sessions were 15 lettermen and 27 sophomores up from last season's frosh squad. The Bullets lost eight seniors through graduation. Also missing will be Tom O'Malley, Pittsburgh; Ernie Velten, Baltimore; and Chet Knight, Chestertown, Md., who left school this semester.

Veterans Lance Butler, Mullica Hill, N. J.; Ron Frederick, Harleysville, and Harry Richter, Bethlehem, head the list of eight ends. The Battlefields' tackles will average slightly over 200 pounds with sophomore Tom Shreiner 225, senior Bill Sarvis 215, Dick Puerta 215 and sophomore Fred Butler 215, providing the beef.

The guards will be headed by lettermen Bob Coble, Pittsburgh; Lee Roelker, Line Lexington; Frank To me, Philadelphia; and Wayne Yohe, Havertown. Joe Baily, a 180-pound senior from Ireland, is the leading candidate at center.

Despite the fact the Bullets will have only five lettermen in the backfield, most of the front liners are in tact. Earl Little, Buddy Goodman, Eddie Lucas, Rich Bainbridge and Terry Looker all saw considerable action last season. Several of the newcomers will include quarterback Jack Norwood, Baltimore, a transfer from Cornell; sophomores Jack Sabo and Ron Council, two little speedsters at the halfback slots; Ralph Bigger, Paulsboro, N. J., a transfer from South Carolina, another halfback, and Dick Helbig, Cranford, N. J., a candidate for the fullback position.

The Bullets will inaugurate their 1960 grid season on September 24, when they tangle with Bucknell in the annual Rotary Bowl classic in Hershey.

New Oxford High Cards Eight Games

An eight-game baseball schedule has been announced for the New Oxford High School team.

Coach Jake Diviney's outfit will open its season at Spring Grove on April 5. Other games are: April 14, Boiling Springs, home; 19, "Bermudian, home; 21, "Littletown, away; 26, "Fairfield, home; May 3, "Bermudian, away; 5, "Littletown, home; 10, "Fairfield, away. *—Adams County League games.

FRANK HOWARD ON PROBATION; DRAWS FINE

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Frank Howard, the towering Los Angeles Dodgers bonus baby, took up residence in the doghouse today for missing a practice game.

Howard, who collected $108,000 in bonuses after being graduated from Ohio State, was placed on probation and fined. There were indications that if his performance does not improve, he will stay in the kennels.

Howard, 6-7 and 240 pounds, was scheduled to appear in the Montreal-Spokane game at the Dodgers' Vero Beach base Sunday while the main squad traveled to West Palm Beach for a game with the Kansas City A's. He didn't show up.

Second Offense

This was the second time in two weeks that Howard had been AWOL. A week ago Sunday, he missed the Dodgers' plane to Orlando and returned home without working out at Vero Beach. He lives off base with his wife.

"He will be fined," said General Manager Buzz Bavasi. "The amount will be determined by his behavior the rest of the spring."

"I am very unhappy about this incident particularly because it was a paid game to which fans paid to see Howard and other Dodgers."

He Was Unhappy

"I told him: 'We've got an investment in you, not you in us. I can't have one set of rules for you and another for the other players.'"

Howard, it was learned, was unhappy about being left off the traveling squad Sunday.

"I can't make the team staying behind at Vero Beach," he told Manager Walt Alston.

Must Hit Offener

"Then he got smart," Alston said. "He goes to the batting cage and hits 15 more than anyone else. He played in eight of our first 12 games. Then he says he's mistreated. I've spent more time personally with Howard than anyone on the roster."

Howard declined to say a word about his misadventures, but Bavasi said he realized the error of his ways. He worked out Monday, but didn't get into the game against the New York Yankees.

"His trouble is that he's always trying to hit those 600-foot home runs," observed Alston. "I'd rather he hit 200 300-foot home runs than one 600-footer. He also has a problem with the strike zone. He's got to learn where it is and hit the ball a little offener."

HAVANA SERIES IS CANCELLED; STIRS BIG FUSS

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—U.S.-Cuban baseball relations were strained alarmingly today in a dispute that reached up to the State Department.

It all started when Lee MacPhail, president of the Baltimore Orioles, cancelled a series of three exhibition games scheduled to open Monday night in Havana against the Cincinnati Reds.

This brought an immediate barrage of criticism from Cuban officials from top to bottom. But MacPhail stuck by his guns and kept the games in Miami.

Sports Director Angry

Complained Maj. Felipe Guerra Matos, the Cuban government sports director:

"The action was an aggression to Cuban baseball and the Cuban people."

He added the Cuban government could not passively contemplate cancellation of the games.

Said MacPhail: "We did just what we thought best for the club. Ten or 12 players didn't want to go to Cuba, but we could have gotten up a squad to make the trip."

Denial By Frick

One Cuban newspaper reported that the State Department had been approached by Commissioner Ford Frick but "sought no action at this time."

Frick, in New York, denied this.

"It was Baltimore's decision as home team to play where they wished," he added. "My office had nothing to do with it."

In Washington a State Department spokesman said the department had not been approached.

Gabe Paul Disappointed

"We would have no objection," he said. "In fact, the department would probably look with some favor on our boys playing there. After all, half the Senators (Washington Senators) are Cubans."

Gabe Paul, general manager of the Reds, said he was disappointed that the games were not held in Havana, and that "we haven't the slightest apprehension about playing in Cuba."

CANADIENS SEEK THIRD FROM HAWKS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Hockey League champion Montreal Canadiens — moving along at their usual rocket like pace — skate out to make it three in a row over the Chicago Black Hawks tonight as the Stanley Cup semifinal series resumes.

Toronto, with a 2-1 edge over Detroit, plays its second game of the best-of-seven series at Detroit with both teams still pretty much winded after Thursday night's 5-4 triple overtime thriller won by the Leafs.

Chicago, which lost its first two games at Montreal, expects to have its large platoon of walking wounded ready for the home folks.

After last Saturday night's overtime loss, the Hawks had Bobby Hull, the NHL scoring champion; Tod Sloan, Eric Nesterenko, Ken Wharram, Bill Hay, Dollard St. Laurent and Al Arbour hobbled by a variety of ailments.

The Canadiens, seeking their fifth straight Stanley Cup, are in good shape.

After tonight's game in Chicago, Montreal and the Hawks will play one more in Chicago and move back to Montreal if a fifth game is necessary. Detroit and Toronto return to the latter's bailiwick for a fifth game Thursday.

John Wanamaker, the merchant prince of the 1870s, was the first to insert full-page advertisements in a newspaper.

DOUG JONES WINS, LOSES

NEW YORK (AP)—Unheralded and undefeated Doug Jones won and lost in his first major fight Monday night.

The tall New Yorker won a unanimous decision in 10 bloody rounds over light heavyweight contender Von Clay of Philadelphia at St. Nicholas Arena.

But two cuts around his left eye cost the 23-year-old Jones a promised television fight with veteran Willie Pastrano at Miami Beach, Fla., April 22.

The wounds brought Jones an automatic 30-day medical suspension.

Cut over the left eye in the first round, Doug came back in the second round and floored Clay for the only knockdown of the bloody battle although Clay was rocked at least six times thereafter and Jones was shaken twice himself.

Clay, who is ranked fifth contender by the NBA among the 173-pound contenders, now has an 11-2-2 record.

Proposes World Series For College Grid Teams

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—A college football World Series has been proposed by Stu Holcomb, Northwestern University athletic director.

Holcomb said Monday night that he has suggested a football play-off modeled after the NCAA's basketball and baseball tournaments. He wrote Big Ten Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson and NCAA Executive Secretary Walter Byers, he said.

Holcomb, somewhat dubious that such a plan would be passed, said the tournament would differ from football bowl games inasmuch as the games would be played in college stadiums and under the sole auspices of collegiate officials.

The idea would be to select champions from six major conferences plus two at-large teams, probably from major independents.

The proposed conferences would be the Big Ten, the Athletic Assn. of Western Universities, the Big Eight, the Southeast, the Atlantic and the Southwest. Army, Navy, Syracuse, Pittsburgh, Notre Dame, Air Force and any other school not in one of the six specified conference would provide the at-large teams.

The Big Ten recently voted to pull out of postseason competition in all sports.

Some educators claim there is a long lag between the regular football season and the New Year's Day bowl games and that there is no such lag in NCAA playoffs in other sports.

Holcomb, asked if the Big Ten's postseason ban had anything to do with his football play-off idea, said under his suggestion there would be no lag.

Four games would be played the first Saturday after the season, with two games the following week and the championship still a week later. The tournament would start the last Saturday in November and end on the second week-end of December.

We have books that digest other books.

Change Of Words
So much of our civilization today is paced up and phoned up that even our language is losing its real meaning. Words aren't those natural and exact measures of truth they once were.

For example, we hear of "cars that almost drive themselves." Do they?

For example, has anyone lately taken a new medicine that wasn't a magic drug, a miracle drug, or a wonder drug?

We also live in the era of the double gimmick. A product that does only one thing for you isn't enough. It has to do at least two things — or maybe three — or it isn't worth mentioning.

Role Of Toothpaste
Thus a toothpaste has to do more than make your cuspsids clean enough to be visible at 30 paces on a foggy day. It also has to make your mouth taste fresh and your breath smell sweet all day, and a good part of the evening.

Thus a cigarette now has to do more than put smoke in your lungs, make bells ring in your heart with joy, and take the place of Mother in your life.

Thus it isn't enough for a perfume to give a girl a nice fragrance. It must make her so fatally attractive she becomes a moral menace, unbalancing the reason and restraint of every male member of the community under the age of 80.

Ever notice, too, how everything today has a secret ingredient? Your dog will develop schizophrenia, your automobile will mope, your lawn will sulk unless each is pepped up with a food or fuel con-

BRIEFS

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro left a jickbed Sunday to beat the drums of fear of invasion and whip up enthusiasm among his Cubans to dig deeper into their pockets to finance a defense war chest.

Looking haggard from the effects of the gripe, the bearded prime minister charged big American business interests were organizing armies of mercenaries to invade.

With his brother Raul, Cuban minister of armed forces, by his side, Castro warned in two fiery speeches that Cuba's new militia — the people's army — would destroy any invasion.

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — In a clemency move that may bring Communist repercussions, Iraqi Premier Karim Abdel Kassem has commuted death sentences against ex-Premier Fadhil Jamali and seven other officials prominent at the United Nations and well liked in Western circles. His wife is the former Sara Heyden Powell of Minnesota.

The Iraqi People's Court had passed the death sentences in the tense months after the July 1958 revolution which toppled the monarchy. Jamali was condemned Nov. 10, 1958, on charges of endangering Iraq and world peace with his activity under the monarchy.

Man harbors more than 150 viruses, mostly just recently detected, and "we are not sure what many of them do," he said. But "now we believe that some human cancers must be caused by viruses."

Dr. Sarah Stewart of the National Cancer Institute, Bethesda, Md., reported that extracts from two human cancers, and from the urine of three children with cancer have produced curious, cancer-like growth changes in healthy human cells grown in laboratory dishes.

There are grounds to suspect — but no proof yet — that the extracts could contain a virus. She also has found that a virus causing leukemia in mice can intain a new secret ingredient. Common Sense Needed

But isn't the thing we all really need to rediscover that old secret ingredient of living called common sense?

Wouldn't we feel better if we again took the long hard slow sure path to what is possible, rather than lose the way so often following false short cuts?

Wouldn't a little more certain performance be better than the tempest of false promises that belauds our lives?

Wouldn't it be nice if both we and our words dropped some of this jazz hysteria and again said what was meant and meant what was said — and nothing more?

Wouldn't it be better if we just bought a hair oil to keep our hair in order, and not depend on it also to win the girl of our choice and overwhelm the boss into giving us a raise in pay?

"The freedom of the press is one of the great bulwarks of liberty," says the Virginia Declaration of Rights, "and can never be restrained but by despotic governments."

SAY VIRUSES ARE CAUSE OF HUMAN CANCER

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Top virus experts Monday presented new and surprising evidence that human cancers probably are caused by viruses.

They also reported that some viruses, contrary to current scientific opinion, can produce substances which destroy cancers.

If specific viruses can be pinpointed in human cancers, new methods might be developed to prevent or control the disease.

"Every man is a walking museum of many viruses," Dr. Jerome T. Syvertson of the University of Minnesota told a seminar for science writers sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Tell Of Viruses
Man harbors more than 150 viruses, mostly just recently detected, and "we are not sure what many of them do," he said. But "now we believe that some human cancers must be caused by viruses."

Dr. Sarah Stewart of the National Cancer Institute, Bethesda, Md., reported that extracts from two human cancers, and from the urine of three children with cancer have produced curious, cancer-like growth changes in healthy human cells grown in laboratory dishes.

There are grounds to suspect — but no proof yet — that the extracts could contain a virus. She also has found that a virus causing leukemia in mice can induce cancers in other types of animals. Humans handling the cancerous mice have been found to have antibodies against the virus, indicating they had been infected with it but had resisted it.

"There are tantalizing leads" now to incriminate viruses in human cancers, said Dr. Wendell M. Stanley, Nobel Prize winner of the University of California.

Vast Study Underway On New "Safer" Cigarettes

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — "Safer" cigarettes may already be on the market, and a cancer researcher says he hopes to learn if they really are safer.

These safer smokes may be those containing only one-fourth the nicotine and one-half the tar content of standard non-filter cigarettes, said Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond, director of statistical research for the American Cancer Society.

A vast, six-year study of more than one million Americans, now under way by the ACS, may show whether those who switched to the "safer" cigarettes actually live longer, Dr. Hammond told a seminar for science writers.

Dr. Hammond is convinced cigarette smoking is "the principal cause" of lung cancer now.

Despite all recent warnings, cigarette sales are at a new high, but perhaps the warning hasn't fallen on deaf ears because sales of filter-tipped and low-tar, low-nicotine cigarettes have increased tremendously.

Dr. Hammond said, "It appears the majority of Americans want to smoke, but they want to do so without running the risk of lung cancer or any of the other diseases associated with cigarette smoking."

Dr. Hammond declared cigarette manufacturers should be "required to make known the tar and nicotine content of their brand."

Dr. Oscar Auerbach, a pathologist, who has made a special study of lung tissues, declared, "I have never seen a man who died of squamous or oat cell cancer of the lung — nor has anyone else shown me a case of this kind — in the last 3½ years who was not a smoker."

Squamous and oat cell types of cancer account for the majority of lung cancers, said Dr. Auerbach, of the Veterans Administration, East Orange, N.J.

Dr. Michael B. Shimkin of the National Cancer Institute, Bethesda, Md., declared studies pointing to the cigarette smoking as a cause of lung cancer amounted to a breakthrough in knowledge.

He said "the elimination of the cigarette habit would reduce the incidence of lung cancer by 60 per cent, saving some 20,000 deaths from lung cancer per year."

The tobacco industry, which has put up millions to finance research, contends there is no scientific proof of a connection between smoking and lung cancer.

SEE APPEALS ON SITDOWN CONVICTIONS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A city court conviction of 43 Negro students for trespassing in North Carolina has laid the groundwork for a possible U.S. Supreme Court decision on lunch counter demonstrations.

Attorneys for the students announced Monday that the convictions and fines at Raleigh will be appealed first to Superior Court. One lawyer said the cases will be taken to the Supreme Court if necessary.

The appeal involves constitutionality of North Carolina's trespass law which says in effect a merchant may serve the customers he wishes to serve. Other Southern states have similar statutes.

Spread To Louisiana
The sitdowns spread to Louisiana for the first time. The chief of police at Baton Rouge arrested seven Negro students from all-Negro Southern University after they sought service at the white lunch counter of an S. H. Kress store. They were charged with disturbing the peace.

After the arrests, Louisiana Gov. Earl Long said the demonstration was very foolish. He suggested that dissatisfied Negroes return to their native Africa and "they'll find out they're doing a lot better here."

At Memphis, Tenn., eight Negro lawyers met with the City Commission and asked that all public facilities be desegregated immediately. The answer was an emphatic no. Mayor Henry Loeb said the commission is "pledged and committed to maintain segregation by all legal means."

The Department of Defense was established in 1947 as the National Military Establishment.

DEDICATE SUB MISSILE BASE IN S. C.

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP)—The first port for arming the deadly ballistic missile Polaris submarines was dedicated here today.

Missiles will be assembled, checked out, stored or loaded aboard the fleet ballistic submarines at the new facility. It is built on an 800-acre reservation seven miles up the Cooper River from Charleston harbor.

The Defense Department has declined to say whether the hydrogen warheads of the Polaris missiles will be stored here.

The Polaris missile, to be fired from submerged nuclear submarines, will have an initial operation range of about 1,380 statute miles. The missiles have been fired more than 900 miles in tests.

The nuclear-powered George Washington was commissioned last December and now is in operation. The second of the Polaris subs, the Patrick Henry, is scheduled to join the fleet before the end of this year.

Blame Dog In Master's Death

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A pet dog was partly blamed for the death of his master Monday night.

Preparing to take his dog for a walk, Michael Purtell, 56, went to the stairs leading from his second floor apartment. Police said Purtell either became entangled in the leash or the dog yanked on it, causing Purtell to tumble down the steps.

Purtell died of a fractured skull.

PICKETING OF BARBER SHOP IS SUSPENDED

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—Some 100 Pennsylvania State University students, both Negro and white, have agreed to halt demonstrations pending talks with the proprietor of an off-campus barber shop whom they claim refuses to cut the hair of Negroes.

Mrs. Peter Day of State College, a former Penn State student who is spokesman for the group, said Monday night she was confident a satisfactory agreement. She declined to elaborate.

Her statement came shortly after picket lines from her group were withdrawn from the barber shop owned by Kenneth Bunn. Bunn declined to comment on the matter.

Pickets had appeared in front of the shop Friday, Saturday and Monday, claiming Negroes had been refused service on each of these days. They passed out handbills asking residents of this central Pennsylvania community to participate in a "non-violent" campaign against segregation.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Day said her group will undertake a fund-raising campaign for southern college students who have been jailed in similar demonstrations involving sitdowns at white lunch counters refusing to serve Negroes.

She added the group will hold a meeting Thursday to enlist support against segregation. She did not explain how the group would go about this.

The Rev. James Lawson Jr., a Negro minister expelled from Vanderbilt University for his part in anti-segregation demonstrations, is scheduled to address the Penn State Student Christian Assn. Wednesday night.

Mrs. Day said Lawson's appearance was scheduled by the association before the barbershop picketing began.
